Back by Popular Demand

Over the past two years we have been regularly asked for 18ct Gold and Platinum findings "like Pennellier used to make" You may recall that the Pennellier range of findings was renowned for its quality and for offering the jeweller something different.

We are delighted to announce the re-discovery of a number of these clasps, catches and bails...

Smiles all round - the return of old friends.

Perfection...

Slowly but surely, over the past 6 months we have improved each setting in our Rex claw range.

We have redefined the facets and ensured that the gothic style claws are both symmetrical and equally spaced.

These settings are not cast. Six different operations are required to form up each size from strip...

Giving the perfect setting for the perfect stone.
