How has jewellery evolved from one era to the next?}

Early Modern Era 1100 - 1400

Medieval Era 1200 - 1500

The Victorian Era 1837 - 1901

Art Nouveau 1890 - 1910

Art Deco 1920 -

Modernist 1950 -

Contemporary 1950 - Present

Jewellery making began in ancient times with precious metals and gemstones being used to create adornments. Over time, techniques and trends have evolved, allowing for more complex projects and the use of today's tools.

Did you know?

Europe.

Manufactured by Cooksgold.

Did you know?

http://digitalcommons.unl.edu/cgi/viewcontent.cgi?article=1039&context=historydiss

http://www.guyotbrothers.com/jewelry-history/jewelry-history-page17.htm

http://www.langantiques.com/university/Art_Deco_Era_Jewelry

https://www.beladora.com/2013/01/art-nouveau-jewelry

http://www.collectorsweekly.com/fine-jewelry/modernist

Visit The Bench for more jewellery inspiration, trends, and useful technique tutorials.

Cooksgold